Over the summer we helped our son set up his first independent home as he prepares to start a teaching appointment in September. One day he and I arrived with a van loaded with furniture, mostly still in cardboard boxes, and started to carry it up to his first-floor flat. As we prepared to take the second load up a window of the ground-floor flat opened and a hand waved at us. We went across to the window and a cheery young man in a bright florescent jacket asked if we needed any help in unloading the van! We declined the help initially but said if he was still around when we got to the heavy items, like the washer, an extra pair of hands might well be appreciated.

I thought about this event as the day went on and was reminded of the passage in the Bible which speaks of 'fruit of the Spirit' - love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control.

As the autumn sets in we naturally think about celebrating the fruitfulness of the land at our Harvest Festival services where we thank God for his bountiful provision for us - this year on the 24th September.

But what about the fruitfulness of our lives? Would we similarly offer a hand to a total stranger? I believe that God has placed us all in the world to help and support one another. Community is certainly strongest when everyone in society works together for the good of all. This is where the fruit of the Spirit come into their own - because all of them talk about how we relate to one another.

As we recall just how well provided for we have been, perhaps we can also think of what we can do to help others, our neighbours, a stranger, and those in greatest need in our our communities and across the world.

As it is written in the Bible:

It is absolutely clear that God has called you to a free life. Just make sure that you don't use this freedom as an excuse to do whatever you want to do and destroy your freedom. Rather, use your freedom to serve one another in love; that's how freedom grows. For everything we know about God's Word is summed up in a single sentence: Love others as you love yourself. That's an act of true freedom. (Gal 5: 13-15 - from The Message)

The MWIB project for this year in our district is for the Samaritans and Multiple Sclerosis locally. The amount raised by our church is – coffee morning £235, Wednesday fellowship £209, Marion's cakes £40, Thelma's afternoon tea £40 and circuit presidents afternoon £75. So the total is £609. Many thanks to all who worked hard and contributed money to support these causes in our local area. Next year the project will be Haiti.

Sandra

Thank you to everyone who has collected their "loose change" for the Smiles Foundation jar. We raised £37.65 this last year, down on last year but nonetheless the money is very welcome to help some very needy children and their families. To anyone who would like to help the new jar is in the church foyer.

Also, I still collect books, DVDs and CDs (yellow box in foyer).

Thank you again for all your support.

Jenny
